LEARNING

Four ways to empower yourself and others with stories

Lessons learned from hundreds of interviews I've conducted for my book series, 'Ten Ways Around the World.'

1. Storytelling is a powerful way to connect with others and share your perspective.
2. Listening is key to understanding the other person's point of view.
3. Use stories to illustrate your message, making it more relatable and memorable.
4. Encourage others to share their stories, fostering empathy and understanding.

TELLING

There's no greater way to inspire change than through the power of storytelling.
Books are available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and your local indie bookstore.

The My Job book series is a social mission project of the Speech Family Foundation. All author proceeds benefit education programs to end poverty.

---

A vocational and social-educational tool to empower you and others with stories that empower and enrich your conversations not just at work.

But everywhere you go.

Workshop on ways to empower yourself and others with stories that enrich your conversations not just at work.

People has taught me ways to think, talk, and dream. Let them hear this.

I hope this

My name is Suzanne Skees, and I curated and edit the My Job book series, a collection of unique, first-person stories of workers in diverse jobs and cultures across the U.S. and around the world. Introducing hundreds of people from diverse jobs and cultures across the U.S. and around the world. Introducing hundreds of people from diverse jobs and cultures across the U.S. and around the world. Introducing hundreds of people from diverse jobs and cultures across the U.S. and around the world.

---

Suzanne Skees, Editor

suzanne@myjobskees.org

831-334-7622

RESOURCES:

1. Learn more storytelling tips at storytelling/storytelling.

2. Get more storytelling tips at storytelling/storytelling.

3. Book the editor to share job stories with your book club, classroom, or special event.

4. Schedule your job-themed fundraiser or event with My Job book series or giveaways. "Story самые" or "Story Slam" or "Storytelling Workshops."